Local boy wins poster contest

Published: December 24, 2010 7:00 PM

Jonas Erickson-Brink was named the primary division winner in FORED B.C.'s National Forest Week provincial poster contest.

Jonas had created a poster of a tree. On one branch is a logging truck, and another a chain saw, reflective of his dad once owning a logging truck.

For his effort, he received a $50-cheque. A picture of Jonas' poster is expected to be posted soon at www.landscapes mag.com.

The contest, which includes three age categories, received 400 entries from across B.C.

"That's quite something for a six year old," says Jonas's mother Janna Erickson, who is very proud of her son.

She says Jonas always uses up her fax paper to create different works.

Glendale elementary Grade 1 student Jonas Erickson-Brink stands with his teacher Sharon Allan during pajama day at the school and the $50-cheque he won through the FORED B.C.'s National Forest Week Provincial Contest. At right is the poster he created that won him the prize. Photos submitted
